Got a question? With so many members, the online forum at egroups.com is a great resource for both new and experienced users. Go ahead, ask your toughest questions, the community is waiting to see what you're going to do with your SE-5 1000.

Do you want to join in?

If you think working with the SE-5 1000 is fun, wait until you start working with others on it. We're passionate about helping SE-5 users make the jump to becoming contributing members of the community, so there are many ways you can help the SE-5 development:

- Submit news about the SE-5 1000. If you have some SE-5 news that you would like to share with the community, please submit your short story, article, announcement or review.
- Report bugs and request features in our software. Please read Reporting bugs, for details on how we like our bug reports served up
- Download patches for new and/or fixed behavior.
- We're always open to suggestions, although we're likely to be skeptical of large-scale suggestions without some code to back it up.
